WOOLWORTHS LIMITED

Following the integration of New Zealand Wine Society and Cellarmasters into the Woolworths Liquor Group, our reputation as Australasia’s leading producer of small-batch premium wines is firmly established.

Pinnacle Winemaking, our production and distribution facility in the Barossa Valley, and our various winemaking facilities in New Zealand produce wines that consistently over-deliver on quality at all price points. Many of the wines are from small vineyards and family estates, and all express the unique character and style of their regions. Our buyers also search the world for the best international offers, bringing a competitive edge our imported wine range. One of the benefits of owning Woolworths Limited shares is that you can take advantage of exclusive offers like this Portfolio Dividend Collection, with a range of fine wines from our portfolio plus two bonus bottles of prestigious award-winners. As a fellow Woolworths Shareholder, I hope you’ll use this opportunity to take advantage of this generous offer.

Hawkesbridge Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc 2012
A stunning “savvy” by a multiple-trophy-winning winemaker, it has the fragrance and intensity of a great vintage. This brand is exclusive to New Zealand Wine Society and Cellarmasters.

Mansion House Bay by Whitehaven Marlborough Pinot Gris 2012
We have sole access to this Whitehaven label in New Zealand. It’s a medium-bodied, finely balanced wine with generous fresh aromatics and spice notes.

The Gallows Wine Co. The Bommy Margaret River Chardonnay 2011
Vintage permitting, only one red and one white wine are good enough to be bottled as “The Bommy”. This is Charlie Maiolo’s (think Cape Mentelle) bespoke wine and exclusive to us.

Packspur Central Otago Riesling 2011
Central Otago Riesling is stunning – this captures its renowned citrus and honey characters. It has a wonderful thread of crisp acidity that makes it truly refreshing.

Coopers Creek Limited Release Gisborne Viognier 2012
This has an amazing pedigree. They made their first Viognier in 2005; the 2007 won a Trophy and the 2009 was a Wine of the Year Finalist! A stunning vintage will see this at the top, too!

Ten Rocks by Lawson’s Dry Hills Marlborough Chardonnay 2012
It was a coup for Lawson’s Dry Hills to craft a range of wine exclusively for our customers. Unencumbered by oak, this wine evokes red apple and lemon characters.

Cape Campbell Marlborough Pinot Noir 2011
Central Otago has the Pinot Noir limelight, and Marlborough examples are often overlooked. This exceptional Cape Campbell should share centre stage.

Amberton Reserve Mudjee Shiraz Viognier 2011
Shiraz Viognier blends are one of the hottest reds around. A tiny splash of Viognier makes Shiraz all the more perfumed and seductive as this Amberton winner proves.

Château Haut Cormier Bordeaux 2010
It won a Médaille d’Or in Bordeaux, and Silver at the Vinalies Internationales, yet we negotiated sole distribution rights in New Zealand.

Lookout Point by Yealands Estate Reserve Central Otago Pinot Noir 2011
Pure quality Pinot Noir from New Zealand’s pristine Pinot heartland. Lookout Point by Yealands Estate is exclusive to New Zealand Wine Society.

Right Side of the Tracks Coonawarra Cabernet Sauvignon 2010
In the vein of Katnook, this Coonawarra Cabernet is complex and majestic. It has evolved beautifully in the bottle and has plenty of cellar potential left.

McLean’s Farm Barossa Shiraz 2010
This velvety, full-blooded Barossa Shiraz is the pride and joy of Bob McLean, a Baron of the Barossa inductee. Bob keeps it exclusive for New Zealand Wine Society and Cellarmasters.
